"CHINA MAIL" CENSUS COMPETITION.

A census of the population of Hongkong is to be taken on May 20th, and in order that our readers may test their skill in estimating the growth of the population since the last census the China Mail is promoting a competition under three heads, asking its subscribers to predict the numbers of—(1) The total civil population; (2) Chinese population; (3) European and American population. We have for the guidance of competitors, given the figures for the last two censuses. All competitors have to do is to cut out the coupons, fill in their estimate and forward them to our office, with the words "Census Competition" in the top left-hand corner of the envelope.
Competitors may send in as many coupons as they desire. A prize will be given for the most correct estimate under each head.
In the case of a tie the estimate first opened will be adjudged the winner.

No. 1.—TOTAL CIVIL POPULATION OF
HONGKONG.

I predict that the total civil population of the Colony on May 20th, 1911, will be

Name.....

Address.....

A.B.—The last complete census of the Colony was taken in 1901, when the total civil population was officially returned at 283,905. In 1906 a partial census was taken, being confined to the original Colony of Hongkong and that part of the New Territory which lies south of the Kowloon range of hills. This partial census showed a total civil population of 319,303, but it should be pointed out that the portion of the New Territory not included in this census possessed a population of 85,011 in 1901.

No. 2.—TOTAL CHINESE POPULATION OF
HONGKONG.

I predict that the total Chinese population of the Colony on May 20th, 1911, will be

Name.....

Address.....

N.B.—In November, 1906, a partial census was taken, this being confined to the original Colony of Hongkong and that part of the New Territory which lies south of the Kowloon range of hills. This partial census gave the total Chinese population (land and floating) as 307,388, but it should be borne in mind that the portion of the New Territory not included in the partial census possessed a population of 85,011 in 1901, the year when the last full census was taken. The total Chinese population for the whole Colony in 1901 was 274,543.

No. 3.—TOTAL EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN POPULATION OF HONGKONG.

I predict that the total European and American population of the Colony (resident and mercantile marine) on May 20th, 1911, will be

N.B.—The 1901 census gave the European and American population of the Colony as 6,432. At a census taken in 1906 the figure was 8,596.

Derk P. Vonkerman, Discoverer of

The New Cure for Consumption.

Marvellous as it may seem after centuries of failure, a remedy has been discovered that has cured the Deadly Consumption even in the advanced stages of the disease. No one will longer doubt that Consumption can be cured after reading the proof of hundreds of cases cured by this wonderful discovery.

Some after change of climate and all other remedies tried had failed, and the cases had been pronounced hopeless of cure. This new remedy has also proved itself effective and speedy in curing Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and many serious throat and lung troubles.

In order that all in need of this wonderful product of Science may know of its efficacy for themselves, a Company has been formed to give this knowledge to the world, and a book on the treatment can be obtained by writing to the Derk P. Vonkerman, Co.,

Ltd. (Dept. 230), 6, Boulevard Street, London,

E.C. 4. Send no money. Simply mention this paper and ask for the free book. It will be sent to you by return of post, carriage paid.

ABSOLUTELY FREE.

Don't wait if you have any of the symptoms of Consumption, if you have Chronic Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, pains in your chest, a cold on your lungs, or any throat or lung trouble. Write to-day for the free book of instructions, and cure yourself before it is too late.

too, to observe a further comment from a native paper which stated that it would be hard for the officials "to escape the breaking in of a sea of troubles for the force of this one secret assassination will increase in extent and become more fierce in energy." This is, in brief, a recently expressed Chinese opinion on the situation, and how true the forecasts of the writer are proving to be we now know only all too well.

But while the position in the South is just now without doubt one of considerable gravity, carrying in its train many ugly possibilities, there is no reason for the moment to attach undue significance to the conflict between the outlaws and the ruling powers. So far as we are able to judge from the news to hand, the strife is being caused by fanatical zealots who are labouring under the conviction of continual oppression at the hands of Manchu officials. The bulk of the people seem to have no hand in the matter at all at present, and as long as they can be kept quiet there need be no fears of inability to crush the misguided Revolutionists. Fortunately, the present Viceroy is a man firm in will and quick to act, as he has already clearly demonstrated in this crisis. If he can only depend on his soldiers in this hour of trial, the affair should come to a speedy termination. On the other hand, should the troops exhibit rebellious proclivities, we fear for the future of authority in Kwangtung. In the present mood of the people it would only need the bare possibility of success to work the populace into such a state of excitement that a general uprising would follow as a natural sequence. In the meantime we can only hope for the best, and, fortunately, the situation now appears to have taken a turn for the better.

HONGKONG CORONATION CONTINGENT.

Departure by the Assaye.

Those members of the Hongkong Volunteers selected to represent the Colony at the Coronation in London in June, who had not already left for home, departed to-day by the s.s. Assaye. They included Lieut. Colonel A. Chapman, V.D., Captain G. P. Lummett, J. H. W. Armstrong, M.S. Northcote, and Sergeant Day. There was a large gathering of friends at Blakes Pier to bid farewell to the departing Volunteers and to wish them a pleasant voyage. The men were in uniform and looked extremely well and fit, and will undoubtedly worthily represent Hongkong although their number be small. Captain Agh conveyed His Excellency's best wishes to Lieut. Colonel Chapman and Officers. There was no demonstration of any kind, and the departure of the Volunteers was very quiet indeed.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, April 28.

A telegram from Tangier states that the bold attempt of M. Boisset, the French Consular Agent at Alcazar, escorted by troops, to take money and ammunition supplies to Major Bremond, has proved unsuccessful.

Major Bremond, who is marching with the Malhalla to the relief of Fez, was recently reported to be detained by floods and exhaustion of ammunition and his force, which is thirty miles from Fez, is now reported to be cut off from relief.

The flying column mentioned in the telegram of the 25th is three thousand strong, but cannot reach Fez in less than ten days, even if unopposed.

A letter received in Madrid from Fez, via Ceuta, states that the Europeans there, disguised as Moors, have taken refuge in the French Consulate. They have been there three days but are unable to leave, as the city is a prey of anarchy. It was feared that the provisions at the Consulate would give out.

There is an unconfirmed report from Tangier that Major Bremond has been killed.

LADY LUGARD ON HAPPINESS AND KINDNESS.

In the course of her address to Chinese members and associates of the "Ministering Children's League," Lady Lugard emphasized the fact that the League was a League of kindness, and urged the children to practice that virtue every day. In conclusion her Ladyship said:—To the young ones I would say that they must begin with very simple acts of kindness to all around them. And I would ask them to remember that kindness may be done to animals as well as to human beings. Not only to birds, who give back their sweet song in return, but also to "dumb" animals, to whom kindness will be done merely to make them happier. By the organization of the League it is intended that a certain number of children should come under the personal influence of each Associate. I would ask that Associate particularly to keep the children under her influence to look on for kindness to do. We must all, from the President to the youngest member, keep in our minds that the League is of no use unless it brings more kindness into the world. I have no need to say to you children how much happier a house is in which everybody is kind. You all know that for yourselves. I would like just to say that your own hearts also will be happier in joining a League of kindness. I ask you also to join a League of happiness. Happiness for yourselves and happiness for those around you. Let your guild of kind children be also a guild of happy children, and you will carry out all the best purposes for which the League was formed.

Major-General C. A. Anderson, C.B., Commanding H.M.'s forces in South China, after concluding the inspection of the S.V.C., left Shanghai for Weih by the C.M. str. Kiangwan, accompanied by his A.D.C. Captain J. Simonds, and will return about the week-end en route to Hongkong.
